

in this issue:

Comment	3
One of Europe's worst natural disasters in living memory	3
Markets	4
Urban tourism among Europeans	4
Little change in the top ten destinations
Sharp declines in first eight months; growth in last four
Bullish prospects for city trips
Profiles	7
Dublin	7
Holidays, and primarily short breaks, dominate visitor demand
Growth in internet bookings
Dublin achieves high visitor satisfaction rating
Edinburgh	10
UK's second favourite city emerges relatively unscathed from 2001
A generally favourable outlook ...
... but competition from other UK cities is growing
Munich	14
A good year – if the US market is excluded from the count
Demand affected by reduced airline capacity
Still Germany's leading tourism city among foreign visitors
Vancouver	15
Tourism development stimulated by the Asian community
Economic impact estimated at C$7.5 billion and 89,000 jobs
Recovery not expected until 2003 or 2004
Comparative Trends	18
Airport hotels in Europe	18
German cities	19
Middle East cities' hotel performance	20
European city statistics	22

