

in this issue:

Comment	3
Meaningful measures for local tourism analysis
The top-down versus bottom-up approach
Markets	4
Japanese outbound holiday travel	4
Urban activities and attractions are highly rated
China and Europe/Russia top for urban activities
Profiles	6
Barcelona	6
An excellent example of public-private sector partnership
Leisure gains on business travel
Europe's share of arrivals more than doubles in a decade
Culture, architecture, cruises and convention centres
St Petersburg	10
One of the world's most beautiful cities ...
... is still plagued with safety and security issues
Neighbouring markets dominate arrivals but suffer the biggest declines
An increasingly popular cruise destination
Zurich versus Geneva	14
Zurich sees strong growth in domestic demand in 2001 ...
... but since 11 September Geneva has outperformed Zurich
Expected loss of EIBTM will be a major blow for Geneva
Orlando	17
Domestic business travel hit harder than leisure
Increased overnight travel by Florida residents helps to stem decline
Further decline expected in 2002
Need to focus on the independent overseas traveller
Sydney	19
Leveraging the Olympic Games
MICE business is big business
Comparative Trends	20
Leading congress cities	20
German airports	21
More tourism taxes	22
City statistics	23