

No. 6 November 2002

in this issue:

Comment	3
The costs, as well as the benefits, of being Europe's Capital of Culture
Sector Report
Events and exhibitions	4
The Dutch experience – events can be big business
Mega-events reinforce the country's identity ...
... as well as boosting visitor numbers and expenditure
Many foreign visitors come to the Netherlands for specific events
Profile
Copenhagen	7
Mixed performance in first eight months of 2002
EU presidency should help boost MICE business
Big increase in hotel capacity
Infrastructure improvements augur well for tourism
Comparative Trends
Visitor attractions	11
London does better than Paris in 2001
Numbers should be even better in 2002
French airports	13
French airports continue to show declines in traffic
Domestic traffic particularly hard hit
US metropolitan areas	14
US study highlights the economic importance of tourism
Big losses in tourism GMP and employment over the past two years
Hotel performance in India	18
Beware an overly pessimistic picture for India's cities in 2001
Outlook for 2002/03 "conservative" at best
China's leading tourism cities	20
Beijing and Shanghai are the main draws
City statistics	21
European Cities Tourism aims for monthly data	