

in this issue:

Comment

London's Olympics dilemma	3
---------------------------	---

Profiles

Lisbon

Hoping for a better 2003	4
Looking to boost Spanish business
Short breaks and incentives seen as good growth sectors

Bristol and Bath

Combining efforts to diversify the tourism product	6
Bath still appeals mainly to older domestic leisure travellers
Low-cost airline services will boost foreign demand

The Bouches du Rhône

A disappointing summer	10
Foreigners stay for longer than the French

Graz

Cultural Capital of Europe 2003	11
Apparent healthy growth from abroad in 2002

Canadian hotels

No clear trends, but results generally uninspiring	14
--	----

Buenos Aires

How long will the city remain so price attractive?	15
Holidays dominate arrivals
Continued strong growth projected for 2003

Comparative Trends

Tourism and local economic development

US cities look to tourism to regain their economic vitality	18
Entertainment and convention centres seen as the main draws
Justifying the investment in tourism-related projects

French airports

Not a bad year, all things considered	20
---------------------------------------	----

City statistics

First results for 2002 are quite promising	21
--	----