

in this issue:

Comment

New European cities website should stimulate consumer's interest 3

Markets

Japanese travel to European cities

A second year of decline ...
 ... but there were exceptions
 Very positive start to 2003 – before the Iraq war and SARS 4

Profiles

Costa del Sol

Consistent annual growth for more than a decade
 Dominance of residential and self-catering tourism
 Malaga develops new tourism attractions and facilities 5

Rome

Foreign visitor counts fall below record Jubilee Year levels
 Leisure dominates foreign tourism, but there are new MICE facilities
 Aiming to be a car-free city 7

Vancouver

Favourite for 2010 Winter Olympics
 Expanded convention centre should bring new business ...
 ... and the cruise sector celebrates 20 years of growth 10

Hong Kong

Renewed optimism after receiving 'clean bill of health' from WHO 2002 was an even better year than expected – thanks again to China
 Chinese market helps boost average length of stay 14

Dubai

Defies world tourism trends
 Huge growth in hotel room capacity and in airline seats
 A combination of natural and man-made attractions 16

Comparative Trends

European resort destinations 19
 World airport traffic 21
 City statistics 23