

in this issue:

Comment	3
Low-cost airline passengers do not necessarily want budget hotels
Markets
Australian travel to European cities	4
There were some winners and some losers in 2002 ...
... but few destinations in Europe will see growth in 2003
Profiles
Göteborg	5
Göteborg&Co – a successful business venture for all stakeholders
Steady growth since the early 1990s
Congresses: decline in number of events, but increase in delegates
Palma de Mallorca	9
A better performance than for the islands overall
Two-thirds of tourists have bought some kind of package holiday
Counting on an increase in arrivals following abolition of eco-tax
Zagreb	11
An increasingly important cultural centre
Difficulty and high cost of access are major deterrents to growth
Still a long way to catch up – but prospects are bright
Comparative Trends
Electronic hotel bookings	14
Europe records 5.5% increase in Q1 2003
German cities	15
Hamburg defies the general downturn
Urban tourism in Brazil	17
Domestic tourism up; foreign business down
Middle East hotels	19
Growth in intra-regional travel provides some comfort
City Statistics	21