

in this issue:

Comment	3
California is counting on Arnie to reverse the state's tourism fortunes
Profiles
Berlin	4
Tourism brings in much needed revenues
Sharp declines from the USA and Japan
Pushing for more MICE business
Vienna	6
Stagnation in domestic demand, but growth in tourism from abroad
Hotels generate three-quarters of arrivals and nights
Aiming for 10 million overnights by 2010
Moscow	7
Putting Russia's capital on the world tourism map
Huge potential for tourism growth
The Travel Business Partnership selected to study the Russian market
Orlando/Florida	10
Another disappointing year from foreign markets
Demand for conventions has also fallen
Lower dollar will boost international demand
Canada	13
Devastating losses for country's six major tourism cities in 2003 ...
... but recovery is in sight
China	15
Guangzhou and Shenzhen top the favourite cities list ...
... but Beijing and Shanghai attract most international tourists
Main tourism cities still expecting positive growth for 2003
Making sense of the statistics
Comparative Trends
World airports	18
Asia Pacific airports suffer the biggest declines
Low-fare airlines boost smaller airports
European airport hotels	19
Waiting for take-off
Overnights in European capitals	20
Germans most likely to stay overnight in their capital city
City Statistics	23