

in this issue:

Comment

Urban beaches for that summer holiday feeling? 3

Profiles

Paris

The French capital seems to be having a good year ...
... after arrivals and overnights slumped badly in 2003
Disneyland Paris could not do any better, either
Paris boasts three of the world's top ten exhibitions 4

Stockholm

After a lacklustre 2003 ...
... the first half of 2004 sees a strong return to growth
Cruise business starts to realise its potential
Increased focus on marketing Stockholm as a MICE destination 8

Valencia

Countdown to the Americas Cup in 2007
Growth has been boosted by new hotel and conference capacity
Sharp increase in cruise tourism 10

Chicago

International arrivals fall below 2000's level
Strong improvement in hotel performance ...
... and passenger throughput at Chicago O'Hare airport
Millennium Park – the city's hottest new hangout 12

Comparative Trends

German cities

Revival of long-haul markets boosts performance in 2004 ...
... but domestic market dominates demand for most cities 14

Middle East cities

Hotel market bounces back, despite the conflict in Iraq
Investors diversify the product mix to reduce risks 16

The meetings business worldwide

Vienna takes first place in ICCA's ranking
Nearly 60% of corporate meetings planners are based in Asia 18

UK airports

Long-haul traffic contributes to BAA's increased passenger throughput
Revenues and profits in line with traffic growth 21

Online hotel sales

Europe sees an increase of 16% in Q1 2004
One-third of all US hotel sales to be made online by 2006 21

City Statistics

23