

in this issue:

Comment	3
Making the Olympics work for tourism
Markets
USA	4
US demand finally bounces back ...
... but outbound trip volume is still well down on its peak
Mixed expectations for 2005, and Europe may lose out
Strength of the euro affects (perceived) value for money
Profiles
Berlin	6
New all-time record for Berlin
50% increase sends the UK to the top of the ranking
Expanded capacity puts pressure on hotel occupancy and room rates
Lille	9
'Lille2004' rated a huge success by stakeholders
The hotel sector was a major beneficiary
How will Cork fare as Cultural Capital of Europe?
Côte d'Azur	12
Tough years, with few signs of recovery
Hotels suffer a further 4% drop in roomnights
Leisure still dominates but MICE tourists spend the most
Reykjavik	15
International tourism dominates
UK, Germany and USA generate over one-third of arrivals and nights
Growing potential for city breaks
Vancouver	18
Growth back on track, thanks to Asia Pacific (mainly China)
Pleasure and VFR account for three quarters of all arrivals ...
... but 2004 was a good year for MICE tourism
New brand for Tourism Vancouver
Comparative Trends
Chinese cities	21
Strong growth in the top 15 cities – and the low-cost airlines are coming
European airports	24
Airport traffic growth slows in Q1 2005	