

in this issue:

Comment	3
Is Europe becoming too dependent on no-frills airlines?
Profiles
London	4
Measuring the impact of the July bombings
China disappoints but India and Russia surpass expectations
Holidays starting to show a healthy recovery
Domestic downturn is reflected in hotel occupancy and rates ...
... and even more so in visits to London attractions
Orlando	9
Déjà vu?
Hurricanes interrupt a good year ...
Medium-term forecasts are bullish ...
... but those for 2006 are cautious
Dubai	11
One of tourism's biggest success stories in recent years
Perceptions of anti-Arab feelings boost other Middle East markets ...
... but Western markets, and especially Europe, are growing the fastest
An unbeatable range of attractions, sporting and cultural events
Shift in focus required
Bali	15
Still well down on target and on 2004
Airline capacity seems to be recovering quickly ...
... and some airlines are offering promotional support
Cruise business
Baltic ports	20
One of the world's fastest-growing cruise regions ...
... boosted by the Cruise Baltic project
St Petersburg	22
Another record year for its cruise business
Ferry and river cruise tourism are also growing
Comparative Trends
European cities	23
Another year of healthy growth?	