

in this issue:

Comment

Let's get the facts straight before jumping for joy 3

Sector Reports

UK business travel

Dramatic increase in online booking, in ticketless travel, ...
... and in the use of low-cost carriers 3

Signs of a revival in business travel demand

International youth travel

Good growth prospects, despite a declining youth population
New efforts to identify the size and importance of the market
Holidays dominate the youth travel market 5

Markets

Germany outbound

Decline in spending on travel abroad 9

France short-break travel

Sharp rebound in 2002 ...
... resulting in new interest from tour operators in the sector 10

Switzerland

Not an auspicious time for Swiss outbound travel
Shorter length of stay for both domestic and foreign trips
Majority still prefer to organise their own trips 11

South Korea outbound

Continuing strong growth in outbound travel
Leisure travel rising most rapidly
Growth largely driven by demand for China 14

Destinations

The world in 2002

A record year for international arrivals worldwide
Varying trends from one region to another
France remains the world's favourite destination
Receipts are expected to show decline for 2002 17

Comparative Trends

Role of the internet in North American holiday travel 19
Middle East outbound: focus on destinations within the region 22
World airports: Asia Pacific and Middle East return to growth 23