

in this issue:

Comment	3
Industry welcomes qualified inclusion of tourism in EU Constitution
Markets
UK outbound	5
Steady growth, if not for the benefit of the travel trade
Growth slows in Q2 2004
Declines in ITs and business travel
European outbound	9
Trends in 2004 are very much in line with expectations
Greece's losses are Turkey's gains
Disappointing results so far for France
West European online travel	10
Continuing strong growth through 2003 ...
The UK is the largest and fastest-growing market
Direct sales gain sharply on sales through intermediaries
Argentine outbound travel	12
Improving economy and low inflation bode well for demand
Outbound travel is still the prerogative of the most affluent classes
Europe's popularity is attributed in part to the Argentines' ethnic roots
Singapore outbound	15
Not much growth since 2000, and a few terrible months in 2003
Growth forecasts remain fairly modest ...
... and aggressive marketing will favour short-haul destinations
Tour Operating/Retail Travel
Swiss tour operators	17
Return to strong growth – but at what a price
Kuoni hangs on firmly to its market leader position
Destinations
USA	19
2004 arrivals are still expected to be well down on 2000's peak ...
... but year-to-date performance is strong
Asia Pacific	21
PATA data points to more than a 20% increase in visitor arrivals ...
... with dramatic increases in travel to and from mainland China	